SUBJECTS OF PATENTS.
INVENTORS are public benefactors. To be liberally rewarded, it is only to be just towards the rights of property, and to tend to increase the public wealth and hasten the progress of practical improvements and of science. The satisfied doctrine of the courts, under the light of long experience, is to incline to construction most favorable to patents.
Extract from a decision of U. S. Court in a late Patent Case.
Three-fifths of the earth's surface is covered with water. Vast sums of money and the best mechanical and engineering skill has, for ages, been employed to perfect machinery to bring this universal and indispensable element into convenient use.

The New Order of the War Department.

Recently an order was issued that slaves should not be allowed to remain at the camps of our armies, and that all should be sent away. Now we have a different order, and a much better one, which is that the slaves heretofore kept in prison at Alexandria be liberated and employed on the entrenchments, to be paid fair wages for their work, and that for the future all slaves coming within the lines of the federal troops, in the seceded states, are to be set free, and employment given to them.

It is now perfectly well known that the rebels use not only slaves in doing all kinds of labor about their camps, but that they are impressing free colored persons into their service for that purpose.

Since they do this, and in view of the fact that this is a slaveholders' war, we think the government cannot do its whole duty to the country without employing the slaves in the work of subduing the traitors. The military power must prosecute this war with such means as it finds at hand, and as the enemy use the slaves let us do it also. Very likely the batteries which laid so many of our troops low on the battle field at Manassas, were built by slaves. The government, therefore, can no longer hesitate what course to pursue, and if it would save itself from destruction, and it takes a step in the right direction in promulgating the recent order in relation to the employment of slaves by the army.

PRISONERS OF WAR.—Many United States prisoners taken by the rebels are now at work with slaves, at Richmond and Winchester, upon fortifications. We have a few rebel prisoners who are confined at Washington, living better than our soldiers, and who daily receive the visits of their friends. The other prisoners whom we have taken, numbering thousands have been released upon their parole, or upon taking an oath to support the United States government, which they habitually violate. This is the way the matter stands in relation to prisoners of war. Is this policy to continue?

THE ELLSWORTH ZOUAVES.—This regiment, well, it is said, be disbanded. No officer has been fully able to control them since the death of Ellsworth, and what with bad treatment, no pay, and the effect of their loss at Bull's Run, they have become completely demoralized. Some of their best officers are leaving them, and it is thought they will be sent home. Only about 400 can be brought together now at their camp in Alexandria, and although it is known that but about 300 were killed, wounded or taken prisoners, such is their condition that they cannot be gathered together or to duty. The curious scene of Friday last, says a correspondent, of gathering in their boys will not be forgotten by those who witnessed it. A company of United States cavalry, with government wagons passed through Pennsylvania avenue and caught them, where they could be found, placed them in the wagon under guard, and when full sent it off to Alexandria. The incidents, scenes, struggles, jokes and humor of the catching cannot be described or pictured on paper or in words.

THE BARBARIANS.—Up to the 29th ult., the dead had not been buried at Bull's Run, and the stench was horrible for miles about. The barbarous manner of conducting the war on the part of the rebels is unequalled in the history of the world. On every side one hears the same story of their inhuman butchery of the wounded, their ill treatment and putting in chains, of the prisoners taken by them. There will one day be a fearful reckoning.

MADISON RELIEF FUND.—The Madison Patriot gives the following action of the subscribers to the Madison volunteer aid fund. But one installment of 25 per cent. of the fund has been paid.

MEETING LAST NIGHT.—There was but a small meeting of subscribers to the volunteer fund in the assembly chamber last evening. Chauncey Abbott was called to the chair. The committee reported that since the last meeting some money had been collected, and all had been paid out to $7,500. They recommended that this be paid out to families needing it most, and that the committee be discharged, as the county board had made ample provision for volunteers' families.

On motion, the report was adopted. Just before adjourning, Wm. Welch, esq., called on Mayor Vilas, as chairman of the 4th of July committee, for a report of how the funds had been expended.

The mayor explained that he did not serve on that committee, and the meeting then adjourned amidst laughter and loudly expressed questions of "who drank and paid for the 4th of July wine?"

EXTENDING AN ARTILLERY COMPANY ON THE FIELD.—Lieut. Col. Stabel of the German Rifles, discovered an abandoned battery of six pieces on the day of the battle, and instantly adopted it, forming an artillery company from his regiment to work it. Horses, caissons, guns, were all left together, and Lieut. Col. Stabel believes that after thus disgracefully deserting their trust, the former officers and men will not be likely to attempt a reclamation. He, therefore, regards the battery as his own.

ALL SORTS OF PARAGRAPHS.

New wheat is coming into market quite freely in Central New York. The Rochester papers report daily arrivals, and say the quality of the grain is unusually good, the berry being generally plump and sound. This year's wheat crop throughout central and western New York is a full average.

Kossuth is about to take up his permanent residence in Lombardy. He has hired a villa on the Lake of Como.

The date of the reverse at Bull's Run is the anniversary of the battle of Shrewsbury between Henry IV and Henry Percy (Hotspur) in 1403. Over 8,000 were slain in the conflict. The battle of the Pyramids was fought on July 21st, 1798.

THE FIFTH WISCONSIN REGIMENT.—Capt. E. C. Hibbard, of the Milwaukee Zouaves, telegraphed from Harrisburg, Thursday morning, that the Fifth Wisconsin regiment received orders to join Gen. Banks' division at Harper's Ferry, and that they were just starting. The First and Third Wisconsin regiments are already there.

The North-Western says that the steam saw mill in Oshkosh belonging to Mr. O. Cross, was lately burnt, together with four hundred thousand and upwards feet of lumber.

When Gen. McClellan rode up to the battle-field, he visited the hospital, and spoke cheerfully to the sufferers, making many inquiries. When he came out at the door, a rough soldier exclaimed to a comrade, "Why, the General is crying."

The Evening Post says: It appears from a letter of Garibaldi, received in this city, that inasmuch as there is now no war in Italy, he has thoughts of coming to America, to offer his services in the war of freedom now waging on this continent.

The N. Y. News, which is in the interest of the traitors and rebels, says: "From a reliable source, intelligence has been received that Gen. Beauregard is reported sick since the great battle."

An editor in Washington wrote on Monday last: "We are indebted to a gentleman direct from Bull's Run, for important information in advance of the army."

The Cherokee Indians have joined the rebels, notwithstanding the strenuous opposition made by John Ross, their President. Gen. Cass has been considerably lauded for generosity in contributing money and equipments to soldiers, in the present emergency of the country. A writer from Detroit, to the New York Times, says he has not contributed a red cent for any such purpose, and all stories of liberality are without foundation.

THE CROPS IN ENGLAND.—The latest advices (to the 17th), report the condition of the crops highly favorable. As regards the probable yield of the wheat crop, it appears that although the growth was thin on many soils, the ear was filled so finely as to render the prospect of quantity very good.

The root crops have flourished greatly during the last few weeks, but to-day from one of the mainland counties there is for the first time a report of the appearance of the potato rot.

SHOCKING CATASTROPHE—THREE LIVES LOST.—On Tuesday last, Mr. Grados Lakost, his wife Leena Lakost, and their child, two years of age, took a small skiff apparently to enjoy a sail on Grand river, Michigan. Being the whole of the family, except a simple-minded brother of Mrs. Lakost, no alarm was aroused at their prolonged absence, although they did not return. On Thursday, the body of the child was found near the Ferry House; on Friday morning, the body of Mrs. Lakost was found, and the same evening Mr. Lakost was also found. It is supposed that the boat upset and all three were drowned.

SECESSION MORTUOS.—On a fine block of Tennessee marble, from that state, for the Washington monument, inscribed—"Tennessee—The Union must and shall be preserved, 1860." There is also a fine large block inscribed—"Louisiana—Ever faithful to the Constitution and the Laws." One short year has passed, and these boasting states, who so vauntingly proclaimed their own loyalty in enduring marble, have rebelled against that Union, and are in arms against that constitution and those those laws! What a commentary on human frailty!

THE DIFFERENCE.—The order of the adjutant general authorizing captains of companies to be hereafter mustered to board their men at an expense not to exceed $2,10 per week contrasts strangely with the Madison and Milwaukee regimental contracts. In the case of the contracts for the 5th and 6th regiments, there were over two thousand men to feed. The contractors did not lodge one of them; they were at no expense for house rent, and even a large portion of the shelter which covered the men while at their meals was furnished by the state. The table furniture was of the cheapest description, tin plates and tin cups, and the food of the plainest and cheapest character; and yet, notwithstanding all these advantages, these contractors received $2,633 a week for boarding the men in the ranks, and $3,50 for boarding the commissioned officers. Now, when small numbers are to be taken care of, in separate localities, lodging as well as boarding to be furnished, house room (for which rent is paid) occupied, and the ordinary care of a well-furnished table provided, $2,10 a week is the outside extent of the price to be paid.

We do not say that the latter price is not a remunerative one; we think an entire company can be boarded and lodged at that rate, and perhaps something in the shape of clear profits realized; but we can help making the contrast, leaving the reflections to the reader.

JUDGE JACKSON PROBABLY IN LUCK.—The New York Times says that Wm. M. Jackson has been nominated as consul to Halifax, J. E. Vinton's name not having been sent to the senate for the reason that our senators remonstrated against his appointment.

We presume, says the Madison Journal, that the Times has made an error, and that the new nominee is Judge M. M. Jackson, of that city.

REPORTED FOR THE DAILY GAZETTE.

BY WISCONSIN STATE TELEGRAPH LINE, Office in Union Passenger Depot.

Last Night's Report.

New York, Aug. 2. Special to Commercial.—From sources thought to be reliable, it is said the house will oppose the proposed increase of 10 per cent. on the present tariff.

The senate military committee are rigidly scrutinizing the army nominations sent in. It is not probable that Major Emory, or any others that wavered at a critical moment, will be confirmed.

It appears that the New York 5th regiment en route home, was stopped while passing through the city of Baltimore, on Wednesday night, by a crowd who cheered for Jeff. Davis.

Another report says the soldiers charged bayonets on the men lying the sidewalk. Several shots were fired, but nobody was hurt, except an officer, who was slightly stabbed while attempting to arrest a rioter. Several arrests were made, but all were released on taking the oath of allegiance to the United States.

The entire force of the reserve regiments of Pennsylvania was to-day placed under the command of Gen. McClellan by order of Gen. McClellan. Eleven thousand of the reserve will be sent forward.

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 2. The Baltimore Exchange says three federal steamers which left Port Monroe on Wednesday reached the mouth of the Potomac river the same evening, and in attempting to ascend they were repulsed and in retreating they ran aground. The Virginians sent for reinforcements and the capture and destruction of the steamers was expected.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 2. SENATE.—Mr. Wilson moved to take up the resolutions approving the acts of the President. Agreed to.

Mr. Brockridge said he should not believe the senate ever intended to take a vote on the resolution. He thought senators were willing to let it have the go-by.

Mr. Doollittle moved to refer the resolutions to the judiciary committee. Lost—ayes 17, nays 33.

Mr. Sherman spoke at length. He approved of all the President's acts, except the one authorizing the Lieutenant General to suspend the writ of habeas corpus, and for this reason he could not vote for the resolution.

Mr. Simmons, by consent, made a report from the committee of conference on the tax bill. The bill reported by the committee of conference is essentially the house tariff bill.

Mr. Johnson, of Tennessee, said he should vote for the bill to carry on the war.

Special despatch to the Chicago Tribune.

CAIRO, Aug. 2.—10 P. M. The steamers City of Alton, with Gen. Fremont and staff on board; the War Eagle and D. A. January, with the 24 Iowa regiment, (Col. Curtis,) the G. W. Graham, with a regiment of Missouri home guard, a thousand strong; the Warsaw and Jennie Deans with Col. Ross's 17th Illinois regiment; the Empress and Louisianians, with Col. Turchin's 19th Illinois regiment, together with Capt. Buell's battery of four guns, well equipped, and Lieut. Willard's detachment of the Chicago light artillery, company A—these all arrived here at five, this afternoon, amid the firing of cannon and the cheers of soldiers and citizens.

The fleet is now lying at Biggs Point, where the troops are to be landed, making the force there about 8,000.

The steamer B. P. Cheney, heretofore running regularly between here and Columbus, Kentucky, was seized at the latter place, this morning, by a party of rebels from New Madrid. The rebels at New Madrid, and this side of that place, are appropriating everything that comes within their reach to their own use. No news of their movements to-day.

BALTIMORE, Aug. 2. The three gun boats which were up the Potomac are now anchored off the mouth of that river. They went up the river six miles, and found the report of a battery at Shelltown, Maryland, erroneous.

At a meeting of officers of the Home Guard this evening, it was reported that the men were willing to continue in the service until Gen. Fremont's return. This city is entirely in their charge now.

Two hundred of Sigel's three month's men returned from Springfield to-night. Sigel has been reinforced by several hundred three years' recruits. They report that there were twenty-five prisoners in the hands of General Lyon, among them ex-Speaker Coffey, who was released on taking the oath of allegiance. His release was exciting much complaint among the troops.

Correspondence has been discovered to-day, and will be published to-morrow, convincing Seneca Park of rank treason and secession, making it sufficiently clear to warrant his expulsion from the senate.

A large police force and several hundred Home Guards are now under arms this evening, expecting an attempt to mob the groggeries by discharged volunteers.

Special despatch to the Chicago Tribune.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 2. The names of Col. Hunter, Col. W. Sherman, Lieut. Col. Buell, Major J. S. Oakes, of the 2d Regiment of Cavalry, and C. S. Hamilton, of Wisconsin, a West Pointer, who was brevetted twice in the Mexican war for gallant conduct, were sent into the senate to-day for confirmation as Brigadiers.

Among the assistant quartermasters nominated were Robt. M. Lamb of Indiana, James A. Swain of Wisconsin, Samuel Chadwick of Michigan, and M. D. Loomis, of Ohio. Among the commissaries of subsistence, the following from Illinois: Wm. Catterfield, and John C. Cox; from Indiana, L. A. Warfield. Among the paymasters, the following from Illinois: Nathan Edwards, Robt. L. Wilson, Richard W. Warren, Nathan G. Wiley, Thos. McKillibbin, Henry C. Phelps, from Indiana, Abram A. Hendrick, and W. H. Scott; from Wisconsin, J. O. Culver.

Provost Marshal Porter has issued an order requiring his guards and patrols to see to it that officers out, without permission from the brigade commanders, be sent to their quarters, and that soldiers out without permit, or out at all after nine o'clock, be put in the guard house; and to keep the city under vigilant observation day and night, to the end of preserving the public peace and saving persons and property from injury at the hands of any one serving in the United States army.

Old "Tom" of the Baltimore Sun, predicts an early advance into Eastern Virginia. He says that the President will push towards Richmond as early as possible, and that General McClellan is to have all the men and material he desires for the purpose.

A rifled cannon capable of throwing a projectile weighing sixty-four pounds, four miles and a half, has just been finished at the navy yard. It weighs 10,000 pounds.

Last evening a flag of truce from Gen. Johnston came within our lines, at Bailey's Cross Roads, with dispatches from Johnston, in charge of Lieut. Hanger, of the 6th Georgia regiment, addressed to Gen. Mc-Dowell. The flag-bearer was at once conducted to the tent of acting Brigadier General McCall, who caused the package to be sent to Gen. McDowell, keeping the bearer and his attendants in his camp. Last night Gen. McDowell sent duplicates of the dispatches to Gen. McClellan, and this morning they were duly laid before the President. Of their contents we know nothing more than that they relate to the dead at Bull's Run.

Capt. W. G. Sherwin, of the Queen City Flying Artillery, was yesterday promoted to the rank of colonel, and he starts for his home at Cincinnati, to-morrow, to organize a regiment of artillery, consisting of ten battalions of six pieces each, at least one of which battalions will be furnished with cannon of his own invention.

Gen. Cameron has gone to Pennsylvania for a few days' relaxation. The assistant secretary of war, Thos. A. Scott, will be acting secretary during his absence.

Officers of the old army, who have been appointed in the additional regiments, are reported forthwith their acceptance or be considered as having declined.

Col. David Hunter, of the 3d cavalry, late commanding the 2d division of the Grand Army, is recommended for Major General of the Illinois volunteer forces, by the congressional delegation of that state.

WASHINGTON, August 1. A pathetic incident at the capital to-day is worth noting. Two gentlemen named Buck, one of whom lives in Massachusetts, the other in New York, having sons in the south, and hearing that a young man of their name had been taken prisoner, came on last night, and to-day obtained permits to visit the jail. Curiously enough they met at the door and entered together. The Massachusetts man instantly recognized his son a prisoner, and fell senseless at his feet.

After he recovered from the shock, the son told him that he was teaching school in Virginia, and when the war broke out was impressed into the rebel service at the point of the bayonet, and would gladly expiate his involuntary treason by serving as a private in the national army. Senator Wilson, who is interested in the case, will doubtless take measures for the release of this victim of southern terrorism.

It is said by those who profess to speak of their own knowledge, that the credit of calling Gen. McClellan to the command of the army of the Potomac belongs to President Lincoln. The majority of the cabinet is of opinion that it is impossible to land. Think they may be the privateer Jeff Davis, or some vessel captured by her making for some inlet on the coast of North Carolina.

NEW YORK, August 3. Flour market a shade firmer, sales 8,000 bbls at 3.95-4.10 for super western, 4.25-4.50 common to medium extra western. Wheat market 1c higher, limited supply and fair export demand. Sales 40,000 bu. at 95-1.00 Mil. club.

By the STEAMER FULTON. Liverpool.—Broadstuffs flour quotations are slightly easier, 24-27 and 6d. Wheat has a downward tendency; decline chiefly on common grades.

Interesting Rebel News.

The governor of Mississippi recommends the expediency of confiscating to the use of the state, all the property within the state, of alien enemies, also the debts due to northern merchants, requiring the amount to be registered and unpaid in five annual installments into the state treasury, payments to be receivable in the treasury notes of the state.

A Mr. Pennington, of Tenn., has joined the rebel army, while his son is a soldier in the 18th Illinois regiment, now stationed at Bird's Point, Mo.

The Norfolk Daybook reports nightly riots at that city between the soldiers and the citizens, and also states that the soldiers have entered the houses of citizens and committed horrible depredations.

The Hon. (J) Robert Toombs has been appointed brigadier general in the S. C. army, and will take the field immediately.

Colonel Loring, late of the United States army, was on Saturday appointed by Jeff. Davis brigadier general of the confederate states, and entrusted with the command of the division lately under Gen. Garnett.

No less than 50,000 bushels of wheat sold on 'change in Memphis on Saturday at 50c @ 1.10 per bushel.

Gen. Henningsen, of Nicaragua notoriety, is at present connected with Gov. Wise's legion.

A salute of 21 guns was fired at Forts Monroe and Sumter, in Charleston harbor, on Thursday, in honor of the victory at Manassas.

The Augusta (Ga.) Constitutional, of the 20th, says: "We learn from a private letter received at this office from Richmond, Va., that there are between the Georgia line and Manassas, some 20,000 confederate troops on the road to Virginia. And this is not all—the number is still increasing."

The 2d regiment of Georgia volunteers passed through Charleston on Friday for the seat of war in Virginia.

A despatch from Richmond says that Col. Hampton was shot in the face with one buck shot; not seriously. Thirteen killed and ninety-seven wounded—seven mortally.

The Richmond Enquirer learns that the state of North Carolina has just transferred to the confederate government, a clever little fleet of five war steamers.

Funeral services over the bodies of Generals Bee and Bartow and Lieutenant Colonel Johnson, who died at Manassas, were performed in Charleston, S. C., on Friday last.

HOW THE FIENDS TREATED THE WOUNDED.—It was reported that John H. Morris, color-bearer of the 2d regiment N. Y. S. M., was killed. How this report originated may be gathered from the following statement by Mr. Morris, who is alive at Washington, and who relates the manner in which our wounded were slaughtered by fiendish rebels:

"Being confined in the hospital in Centerville, at the time it was fired by the rebels, I had an opportunity of witnessing their actions with regard to the wounded—many of whom they dragged out through the windows and bayoneted; others were killed by the butts of muskets. I escaped by feigning death, and a screeching during to breathe. They afterward fired the building, while many were yet inside. Soon after they retired, and I made good my escape to Washington."

Mr. Morris was wounded in four places, but is in a fair way to recover.—N. Y. Tribune.

MEXICO, Mo., August 2. Gen. Pope has established his headquarters here for the present. Col. Grant's, and four companies of Col. Marshall's cavalry, are quartered here. Water is both inconvenient and impure here, and a change of rendezvous will be made as soon as arrangements can be perfected for encampment.

Brig. Gen. Harburt was detached from here to-day to select camping ground near Jefferson City, where some 30,000 troops will be congregated under General Pope's command.

Gen. Pope is assigned to the command of all the forces north of St. Louis. These troops will consist principally of Illinois regiments, together by themselves, and thus form one grand arm of the western army. This division will be ready after thorough drill and vigorous discipline in camp, for an advance movement through Arkansas and Texas towards New Orleans, as soon as the excessive hot weather abates sufficiently to warrant the health of the troops in that climate.

Part of these troops are to be made up of new regiments lately accepted from Illinois. Gen. Pope hereafter designs to permit no more scouting, deeming it an injury to efficiency of troops for service.

People will be held strictly responsible for depredations committed. If hostilities occur and troops are called to their relief, they will be sent in sufficient numbers to take possession of the village or villages that may be threatened; making quarters in the houses and drawing food of the citizens. This is believed only means of making and keeping people daily vigilant to their own and the state's interests.

BALTIMORE, Aug. 3. The steamer which brought Gen. Butler this A. M., who is en route for Washington, passed one of the steamers of Lieut. Crook's expedition.

The Lieut. reported they had burnt two vessels, and that they had captured a third, and that his expedition was all safe.

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 2. Advice from the south, received at Wilmington, N. C., say that the tow boat Mariner, carrying 22 men and 2 guns, went out on Tuesday after the battle of Manassas, with letters of marque. The port had not been blockaded, and British vessels came in almost daily, taking out turpentine and naval stores. The 1st draft for troops will be made in the second states in a week or two. There is great quaking among civilians in consequence. None of the rebel troops have been paid off, save in a few instances.

BOSTON, Aug. 3. A letter received here from on board the U. S. ship Savannah, off Cape Hatteras, says she gave chase for three or four hours to a suspicious vessel, when, apparently to avoid being captured, she ran over shoals, and high and dry on the beach. She was a full freighted brig of about two hundred tons burthen, and her conduct was most singular throughout the chase. She was of gun range or she might have got a ten inch shell into her. We attempted to get near enough to ascertain her true character, but a bar prevented. She is 15 miles north of Cape Hatteras, and the sea is so rough that it is impossible to land. Think she may be the privateer Jeff Davis, or some vessel captured by her making for some inlet on the coast of North Carolina.

The Wisconsin Second Regiment.

We find the following in the New York Express, which is the first favorable notice of our regiment given by the New York papers:

In the several accounts of the battle at Bull's Run, due credit has by no means been given to the men of the second Wisconsin regiment, for the manner in which they bore themselves in what was, to newly recruited troops, a terribly severe trial of steadiness and pluck. They went into the action about 11 A. M., having marched four miles, one half the way on double quick time. They received no order from any quarter, whatever, after that which sent them into action, until the general retreat was ordered; and left the field about 5 P. M., being next to the last regiment. During this six hours they were often exposed to a fearful fire from the batteries of the rebels, and they stood the test with an unflinching bravery. This same regiment, in the action of Thursday, the 17th inst., stood in the line of battle for one hour, under what has been described by those who saw it, as one of the most terrible fires ever witnessed. They were, most of them men who had never been in service, but they had been ordered to remain in this trying position, and so veteran could have behaved with more integrity than did these gallant fellows of the badger state. Their retreat from the battle field of Sunday last was conducted in the most orderly manner, and they are now at Fort Corcoran, on the heights of Arlington. They have left nothing to bear witness to their good conduct and none of them can be found about Washington, telling stories of their heroism to the curious groups eager to hear of the incidents of the day at Bull's Run.

The Fire Zouaves, who bore so gallant a part in the affair, freely testify to the bravery displayed by their Wisconsin comrades, and both these bodies will be ready to march southward whenever the word is passed for the renewal of active operations.
